

Saturday afternoon interests and crafts

At this point in time we are organising a variety of choices. If you have a particular activity that you feel a group of women would like to do, please let us know. More information on the electives will be forwarded when they are finalised.

Do you have a craft item to show?

Maybe you have an item that others may be interested in. Bring it along to share and show. Maybe you have an instruction sheet?
.... Bring it too.

Facilities The conference centre has a selection of rooms in which 8 ladies sleep in bunk beds. Each room has an ensuite. Each group of rooms has a "breakout room" with a sink, coffee facilities, TV, tables and chairs. There is a laundry on site. Outdoor seating areas. There is a small group of shops not far away. The site sleeps 210 people.

What to do now?:

1. Keep pages 1, 2, 7, 8 for your information
2. Send a copy of pages 3, 4, 5, 6, your registration, with your deposit to:

The Treasurer, Nel Andrews
P.O. Box 3122 East Blaxland

Hello ladies of Australia,

17.6.2013

On behalf of the convention planning committee I would like to invite you to the 2014 convention. It is to be held at Elanora Heights, the northern peninsula of Sydney. This means there are beautiful beaches, lovely walks and quaint ferry rides not far away.

We have two guest speakers leading us in the study of our theme, God is Faithful! but where are you? Janice Kennedy and Margaret Livingstone are both very experienced and challenging Bible presenters from the CWCI circuit.

The talented Naomi Reed will encourage us with her wonderful acting skills. We have the opportunity of listening to Dr Melanie Woollam an Osteopath who runs a health centre in Frenchs Forest, Sydney. Also Dr Charlotte Morgan, who is a Psychologist and has autistic twins, will lead a talk about autism.

The evening "From Aprons to Fascinators" is an opportunity to dress up with an apron or fascinator and to share a memory with us all!

Consider our billeting offer. There are many opportunities of accommodation with the women of NSW. Discuss this idea and if you decide yes, fill in the form.

As usual there will be an afternoon where we all can go out. We will be able to do various things. This could be an easy walk, a hard walk, a beach walk, ferry ride, joining the café set, exploring or a swim.

If you are a walker bring your shoes, blockout, hat, light bag, water bottle. Swimmers, the beach or the onsite pool will entice you so don't forget your gear.

The varied "interests and crafts" elective afternoon will cater to all tastes. These will include active and passive opportunities as well as creative and informative ones, some onsite, some offsite.

It is with great pleasure we give you this registration form as we are confident that this will be a wonderful convention together.

In Christ we serve,

Rennie Vanderpol, secretary.

From Aprons ...

... to Fascinators

Do you have a funny story to tell? Maybe a "hard" story from a difficult time in the past, maybe from migrant times, represented by an apron. Maybe you would like to tell a story of a wonderful time, a time of blessing or of great joy, represented by a fascinator.

There are many memories amongst us, worthy to be shared, worthy to be prepared, worthy to be presented to us by you! Think about it...give it a setting.... outline your characters, wear an apron or a fascinator to set the scene. Have a practise with a friend. Hop on the stage, here is the microphone .... give it a go!! Register at the convention.

Everyone:

Bring an apron or fascinator to the convention!!!

You may win a prize. For example

- The oldest apron, most colourful, biggest, useful etc.
- The biggest fascinator, feminine, colourful, meanest, etc

Billeting

- I have arranged my own billeting and do not require your assistance.

- I would like to have your assistance to organise a billet for me.

- I will be by myself.

- I would like to be accommodated with these ladies if possible.
